

YEARBOOK - Journalism Application

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Your Email: _____

Parent name and phone: _____

Email: _____

Current/ Most Recent English Teacher: _____

Please check all the areas below that interest you:

Writing

- News/ academics
- Feature/ Human interest
- Humor/ political satire
- Persuasive/ opinion/ column
- Sports/Entertainment
- Proofreading/ copywriting

Business

- Advertising/ sales
- Marketing/ promotions
- Accounting
- Fundraising

Photography

- Graphics software
- Scanning images
- Digital photography/ imagery

Design

- Print design and layout
- Internet content editor
- Cartooning/ Illustration
- Computer graphics
- Advertising design
- Web design/ production

Other: _____

EDITOR positions usually require previous staff experience and are made in separate application.

Are you considering any of the above as a future career option? If yes, please list:

Do you have a job? Please state where, when you will be required to work, and how often.

Do you expect to have a job next year?

About how many hours per week do you expect to work?

What else do you want to share about yourself?

As a member of the yearbook staff you will have assignments that require research and completion in and outside of class. Will anything hinder you from this responsibility? Yes No

If Yes, please explain: _____

Describe THREE positive qualities you believe make you an asset to the yearbook staff:

Describe your computer competencies and how comfortable you are working with, or are willing to learn computer programs. (word processing, graphics, scanner, digital camera, online web sites, social networking etc.)

Describe other special abilities/ interests you have or want to develop that make you a good candidate for Yearbook- Journalism.

List at least TWO faculty members or administration references:

Name

Department or office
